What went behind.....

It was truly an enchanting experience as we flowed into a different world with Dance enthusiast Churchill Pandian's , 'Ganga to Kaveri'. The audience were treated to mesmerizing performances of various Indian classical dance forms by noted artists. Kathak by Meghranjani Medhi , Kuchupudi by Prateeksha Kashi , Odissi by Mohul Mukerjee, Bharatanatyam by Vrinda Chadda and Vilasini Natyam by Purva Dhanashree was a feast to our senses.

The concept of 'connecting rivers through dance' presented by Utsav Music had the artists highlight the legends and the role played by the major Indian rivers.

The group presentation at the end highlighted the confluence of all rivers and celebrated the idea of integration thereby creating an awareness to preserve the environment.

What Lies Ahead.....

Being women, how often we have been told how to behave, what to wear and what not to do. As the world celebrates International Women's Day in the month of March, let's empower ourselves to live more confidently and assert ourselves when needed. Let's awaken the Durga within!

Our guest Usha Narayanan, an author who combines self help with mythology shows how the ancient tales help inspire us to conduct ourselves with grace and dignity. A story teller of mythological fiction, she has best selling novels cut across genres.

It's a privilege that in Trichy, the author has agreed to launch her book at our forum, yet another feather in our cap!visit www.ushanarayanan.com

Everyday

I smile and act

Like nothing's wrong.

It's called putting

Everything aside

And simply Being strong.

Books written by Mrs Usha Narayanan are rocking the charts on
