March, 2022

Greetings from The Aura,

Better days are here again! It was our first meeting in two years with the guest arriving in person. All we needed was that little 'extra' to make the day extraordinary.

The speaker Mr Prasanna Venkatesan, a business coach and motivational speaker, had the attention of the audience for a full 2 hours and more. The session, 'The Extra Degree', interspersed with presentations and activities, showed that Professional growth starts with personal growth. Prasanna stressed on the importance of expressing confidence, radiating positivity and building trust to take our business and relationships to the next level.

Ups and downs are part of life, be resilient, hold on to yourself and emerge stronger. Practise gratitude everyday. Connect to people and be the change you want to see... so many thoughts, so many ideas.... It was a session packed with pearls of wisdom. Let us take the time to internalize the thoughts and emerge victorious in all that we do.

Aura Artemis anchored the show, welcoming new members into The Aura. We look forward to your feedback on our programs every month.

Spring is nature's way of saying, "let's party!" At The Aura, we believe, the most cherished moments happen, when friends get together. In our constant effort to organize events to interact, innovate and indulge, we bring to you a potpourri of events for an enriching experience.

V.Sriram, entrepreneur, historian and columnist, is a firm believer of the history and culture of India. A captivating speaker, hear him narrate the heart warming story of C.Saraswati Bai, a woman outside of the devadasi community to take to the performing arts. Her life is that of a path-breaking woman who overcame severe challenges of gender bias.

Post lunch, let's tune in to foot tapping music, trivia and quiz with T.S.Ranganathan, a musician, director, entrepreneur and media anchor. A popular face on television and music circles, he has numerous albums on both devotional and cine music to his name.

After a successful virtual event a year ago, we are happy to have Siegers Group in Trichy for more fun and games. The nationally recognised team building and corporate training organization founded by N.Rajkumar, has a comprehensive suite of innovative programs for all.

Ladies, be on time to cheer our members, as they walk the ramp for our sponsors Vummidi Bangaru Jewellers.
