Greetings from The Aura,

Never has a trip to Chennai been so exciting. We were delighted to receive an invitation from the Dewan to the prince of Arcot Nawabzada Mohammed Asif Ali to visit his abode and take a tour of the historic monument.

Nestled within the bustling Royapettah, Amir Mahal is one of the oldest heritage buildings in Chennai. The Nawabzada, together with his better half Begum Seema Ahmed, played perfect hosts to the excited group of 45 auraites. A tour of the magnificent palace, a sumptuous lunch with the delectable Nawabi biryani, melodious notes on the piano by the Nawabzada himself!!! A truly memorable experience. A visit to the Mystery rooms before we boarded the flight back home packed in more fun and adventure to us Trichiites.

Later in the month, it was the second session of our wellness series with Minnku Buttar, CEO and founder of the personal success program - 'The circle of Joy'. With her magic tools to raise vibrations, Minnku explained the need to vibrate higher to attract positivity. The program was deeply insightful, let us take the time to cleanse, to heal, to renew and grow, and make the world a haven of peace and calm.
