

Greetings from The Aura,
Month of March saw a very powerful session, full of Josh and inspiration.

Women of steel – you are second to none said Capt Yashika Hatwal Tyagi as she shared her heart-touching journey to becoming a contingent commander in the Indian army. The Kargil war veteran encouraged everyone to dream, only then can we break boundaries. Learn, unlearn, re learn and repeat to be a better version of yourself! Your journey is yours, don't look for validation". So many messages to take home. Each one who attended felt empowered.

Flashback

Aura Astraea gave a fantastic start for the day with fun filled activities and birthday celebrations. With each member taking the effort to dress up in the colours of the tri colour, the mood was one of celebration and cheer.

Capt Tyagi concluded with the lines from the poem Invictus,

*'I am the master of my fate,
I am the captain of my soul'.*

Be your biggest cheer leader!
