January 2007

The 8th of January was for our Aura members an unusual day. Dressed in their best costumes, carrying a pen, notebook and colorful memories of their early twenties, they stepped their foot into the Indhira Gandhi College. When the watchman stopped them, they tried to explain. But when he asked for their ID Cards –No wonder-They were flying high !!!

Mr K.Srinivasan in a down to earth manner started with the basics of opening, closing and saving a file and went upto manipulating data in Excel using the pivot table. Thus, ways to organize, analyse and present data with more precision and panache were put to light, duly supported by his instruction booklet. Thanks to the infrastructure provided by the College and the vivid session of Mr.Srinivasan the day was an IT Eye Opener

THE ONLY WOMEN'S CAR RALLY IN TRICHY

Sunday
18th February, 2007

Flag Off : 9:30 am, Vestry School
Valedictory : 6:30 pm, Hotel Sangam

In our everyday life, there are very few activities that make us feel liberated. For a woman, being able to drive gives a sense of freedom that can only be experienced. In order to encourage more and more women to discover driving as a true manifestation of their independence, and also to instill and improve 'road sense' among women, this month, The Aura brings to you a very unique event in Fastrak '07.

Get Set Go... Places!

Its common knowledge that haste makes waste. So, in this rally, the keyword is not speed. Here, the mantra is that, if you are failing to plan, surely, you are planning to fail. This is not a treasure hunt. But driving discipline is the golden key that would open your own box of treasures. And whoever thought that 'backseat driving' was easy, should think twice, because the navigators would have their hands full too. So get ready to drive your way into glory at the Fastrak '07!

When you wake up every morning, you have two choices – go back to sleep and dream, OR, wake up and chase those dreams. On Sunday, the 18th of February, make the right choice.
