Chandraprabha at The Aura

What went behind....

There is a rumour that is making its rounds in the town that all those Aura members present at the Graphology session are practicing their handwriting everyday- dotting their 'i's and marking their 't's right, working hard on their strokes- and all this to relieve stress and challenge the psychological issues that cause it. I am sure this improvement in handwriting will produce a better, more focused, very relaxed 'you', with an additional bout of energy and a healthier 'aura' that will be felt by everyone around. Chandraprabha, indeed gave a new dimension to our way of writing.

The August born celebrating their Birthday

A Shopping Festival

Navarathri and Diwali seasons usher in the indomitable spirit of shopping in all of us women. Respecting this trait in the fairer sex of our town we take great pride in introducing a unique shopping mela 'Utsav' – an activity, Trichy has never experienced before. At this shopping festival, there will be a miscellany of colourful stalls ranging from traditional jewellery to fashion wear. Sarees and designer blouses, music dvds and nursery rhymes, small simple pouches and elaborately designed leather bags, delicious home made chocolates and special flower bouquets are some of the articles that will adorn the stands at the Utsav. Let your children be a part of the exciting educational and fun filled activities organized specially for them by experts in this field at the venue. So, make sure you don't leave them behind, for they will not be a hindrance, while you shop. Sanjeev Kapoor will again be present for his 'book launch' and you can interact with him for a second time!

Attention:

- Bring your friends and children along to enjoy the layers and layers of fun that we have organized for you at the 'Utsav'. Entry free and open to all
- On Sunday around 4.30 PM there will be a Book Launch by Master Chef Sanjeev Kapoor at Lawns, Hotel Sangam along with the Prize distribution for the Lucky Draw
- Annual event Members' event 'Me and My Aura' details enclosed.
