What went Behind...

"I'd rather be a sparrow than a snail, yes, I would, if I could, I really would...."

"I'd rather be a forest than a street, yes, I would, if I could, I really would...hmmmm"

-This is how the famous song of the 1970s 'El Condor' goes.

At 'The Aura' we have a bunch of enthusiastic ladies who dare to be different, who dare to be a cut above the rest, who dare to be themselves wherever they are, who dare to be a sparrow, talkative and sprightly, flitting and flying than a slow snail that moves at a painfully lazy pace or dare to be a forest inspiring poetry in the hearts of all than a prosaic street.

The trip to Gangai Konda Cholapuram, was a mixture of fun and information and helped the ladies discover these glorious traits in themselves. Hey guys, after this one excursion, the members are raring to go on longer trips, mmmm... maybe abroad! Remember, the saddest song is always given by those who do not leave their couches.

So, let in a bit of adventure in your lives, open the door to a fresh addition of friends and you will find that you are blessed with a benevolent bliss in whatever you do. Think, resolve and act....!

What lies ahead....

Theatre will be in town in the month of February 2011!

At 'The Aura' we always pride ourselves in introducing novel people and innovative events to Trichy. The special events—Fastrak-the car rally; the cookery show hosted by the famous Chef Sanjeev Kapoor; the Utsav, a special shopping extravaganza and the much talked about Music and Dance Festival, are proof enough of this trait in us.

This year, we bring to this temple town, a contemporary English play- 'Five Point Someone' (based on the novel by the same name by Chetan Bhagat), by the popular and well-established theatre company -EVAM, from Chennai. They are a professional group who conduct workshops in theatre, produce plays that has entertained millions of theatre buffs all over the world and who offer workspace for those who love to work in this genre of art.

Getting them to Trichy has been a Herculean task, so, we request all of you to attend this event with your friends and family. There are only a few ground rules that have to be adhered to- children below 12 will not be allowed and the audience will have to be seated by 5:45 p.m. as the doors will be closed. The conditions laid down by the players are definitely not too difficult to adhere to, considering the high standard of this group.

Attention

- Children below 12 shall not be permitted inside the Hall
- The audience are requested to be seated by 5:45 PM
- Please present the Entry ticket enclosed with this newsletter at the time of entry
- Tickets (Priced at Rs 100 for Adults and Rs.50 for students) are available at Hotel Sangam.

“To develop our personality, we need to progressively identify ourselves with the higher dimensions. This is possible through the harmonious development of our physical, mental, intellectual, moral and spiritual faculties.”
