WHAT WENT BEHIND

Amidst great excitement, 255 rallyists gathered in the National College Grounds to participate in the Fastrak'14 TSD Car Rally. 85 cars were flagged off by Film Director Suresh Krissna. Our sponsors were ecstatic at the turnout and we, in the committee were on cloud nine, delighted to see the fruits of our efforts. The participants enjoyed every minute of their drive through the roads of Trichy, driving, navigating, calculating and answering the interesting questionnaire. MMSC went all out to make the tulip chart appealing, demanding the complete and committed participation of all the members in the team. This year's Fastrak was a runaway success!

Director Suresh Krissna was floored by our hospitality and he was impressed with the quiet nature of our city

WHAT LIES AHEAD

Topic: “ Role of lyrics in film Music Then and Now”

Speaker: Mr. Jayantha

Date: 12th August 2014,

Time: 10.45 pm.

Venue : Hotel Sangam, Trichy

Rendakka....Rendakka.....Rendakka.....Rendaakka... I wonder what these words from a popular song from a more popular movie mean. For most of us the new songs hold no meaning, no poetry, no subtlety and no music. This is the common complaint that we hear from most of the older generation. Today's Film Music has undergone a sea of change just like the food we eat, the books we read, the holidays we enjoy and the kind of lives we lead. There is a spattering of technology in everything we do and endure. This month, a reputed lyricist will debate on the lyrical nature that permeates in songs today. We will travel with him and visit the golden era, when lyrics were as important as the tunes, breeze through the times when music was more rustic and pastoral and reach the 'times now' when music is churlish and coarse.

“Like everything else in nature, music is a becoming, and it becomes its full self, when its sounds and laws are used by intelligent man for the production of harmony, and so made the vehicle of emotion and thought.”

“Modern music is as dangerous as narcotics”
