NEWSLETTER 116

January 2017

As we bid good bye to 2016, the state of Tamil Nadu bid a tearful adieu to a towering personality. We mourn the untimely demise of our Honorable Chief Minister J.Jayalalitha. Let us salute the iron lady of Tamil Nadu, who stood as a symbol of dynamism, bravery, intelligence and was well known as a shrewd administrator. Along came cyclone Vardha, which unleashed its fury on Chennai city. Finally 2016 draws to a close, let's hope for the best and welcome the New Year on a merrier note.

As winter sets in, the cold winds blow. It's time for music and much more!

Music brings to our mind, melody, peace and serenity. For most of us music can be vocal, instrumental, folk, carnatic or western, may be even jazz and pop.... But for young Swetha Suresh it's whistling! Gone are the days when our elders frowned at our feeble attempts to whistle. At present, world championships are held all over the world. While Swetha is all set to start a school to promote this art, let's try and learn the tricks of the trade from the champion, as for whistling I am sure age is no bar.

With the climate at its best, it's the perfect time of the year to be outdoors. So in the month of February, let's pack our bags for an overnight trip to Yercaud. Away from the crowd, trekking around the hills, plucking coffee seeds for your morning cuppa, feeling the camaraderie at the campfire and waking up to the bird calls in a resort can be the perfect recipe for a getaway! Hurry ladies, book your seats as we only have a few at hand!
