February 2017

What went behind....

'Music is the mediator between the spiritual and the sensual life' said Beethoven. Young Swetha Suresh mesmerized the audience with her talent and proficiency in both western and classical music. As the ever humble World Whistling Champion danced and whistled her way into our hearts, The Aura thought it befitting to give her a standing ovation for her performance. For Swetha, whistling is an expression of joy. Be it Mozart's opera tunes or the melodies of Ilayaraja and AR Rahman, she was at ease with every genre. Our members needed little encouragement to try their hand at different techniques, and the ever enthusiastic Aura ladies joyously whistled to the tune of Sara Jahan se achha Hindustan hamara!

What Lies Ahead....

How often have you searched the entire house for your keys or tried hard to remember the right word for the essay? This month, get set to sharpen your memory and enrich your vocabulary and help brain cells live longer as we meet yet another champion. Mr Sam Joseph, who was twice ranked 5th National Scrabble Championship player is involved in the promotion of sports and games. He hopes to start a scrabble club in Trichy with our enterprising members. It is a game for all ages, so let's have fun as we play with words and team up with friends for a tournament post lunch. With prizes to be won, let's get set to scrabble!!!
