March 2017

What went behind.....

The Aura presented two meetings in the month of February. The first was an indoor event in which we learnt the nuances of the game of Scrabble with Mr Sam Joseph. It was like the good old summer holidays when we spent hours huddled around a game board with no track of time! What fun it was, competing with friends with a bunch of alphabets in hand and prizes to be won.

The much awaited trip to Yercaud took off on 24th February with a group of adventurous ladies determined to explore the hills. Good food, fun and games, warmth of a bonfire, exploring the Chengaud estate, a trek up to the temple and lots of shopping! To top it all, a mannequin challenge made it an unforgettable experience.

What Lies Ahead.....

We all agree that a walk in the garden, time spent with pets or even a good workout provide a different sensory experience. This is an essential part of special education, says our speaker for the month of March, Dr Vasudha Prakash. A visionary educator, she holds a doctorate in the field of special education and learning disabilities. She has been instrumental in raising awareness of the need for resources for children with special needs. Her counselling services also extend to issues concerning adolescents and young professionals.
