November 2017

What went behind.....

It was a very special Sunday evening when members gathered with family to celebrate the 12th anniversary of The Aura. The very talented actor and mimicry artist Chinni Jayanth, who is well known for his comic sense, had the audience in splits with the variety show laced with humour and music. Our member Akila Srivatsan received huge applause for her show 'humour in uniform'. The games, prizes, dance and music made it a fun filled evening.

With recent events like Utsav, Reboot and Regroup being well received by the ladies of Trichy, we are happy to have reached out to quite a few new members this year. It's our pleasure to welcome you all!

What Lies Ahead.....

This November, we have with us Rakesh Raghunathan, a food writer, cultural raconteur and travel show host who likes to explore and celebrate the link between food and culture. His passion for food and travel culminated in his blog Puliogare Travels.

Rakesh will present a live demo of the recipes of Thanjavur and invites interested members to bring in a traditional Thanjavur dish prepared by them and speak a few words about it. He will judge the dish based on its authenticity. While members are free to innovate, they should give a logical explanation to it. For Members taking part in the competition prior registration is compulsory to avoid repetition of recipes.

Ladies, just hearing Rakesh Raghunathan speak about regular south Indian cooking, makes the mundane seem exciting! Don't miss it!!!
