March 2021

Happy Women's day to all the incredible women out there! Shine on, not just today, but every single day!

Music evokes so many feelings in us, memories, nostalgia, things that are connected to our past. #qfr was one such event which added variety to the India Art Festival, our regular feature in February which was held online by The Aura this year.

The show 'Quarantine from Reality' was a reminiscence of Tamil and Hindi Cinema with Ms Subhasree Thanikachalam, a top class Journalist, Script writer and Producer. She led us through a mesmerizing journey of music from the 1960s to the 2000s.

The Retro e-concert by very talented young singers Santosh Subramaian, RP Shraavan and Srinidhi with brilliant support from the musicians was a treat indeed. The trivia on each song by Subhasree added more charm to the show. Three cheers to team QFR who carried every song with great aplomb!

The internet is fast becoming a way of life for many and the chances of falling prey to cyber crime looms large. Social media crimes like profile hacking, photo morphing, shopping scams, information theft, eve teasing are increasing by the day.

To throw more light on the safety of women, we have with us Mrs S Rajeswari recipient of the President's medal for meritorious service. Known for her simplicity, honesty and integrity, she is an inspiration to young girls aspiring to join the police service. Let us be more aware and less vulnerable on the internet.

For Sabita Radhakrishnan, age is just a number. A freelance writer, food columnist, textile designer, broadcaster and scriptwriter with the AIR and Doordarshan, she was also an active member of the Crafts Council of India and the pioneer behind the boutique concept in Chennai.

As a textile revivalist and craft activist Sabita's work during the pandemic was commendable. She launched 'The weaver's initiative' to help the weavers sell their stock. She deeply values her work with crafts people and their welfare.

Music is the only medium which leads you to shed inhibitions and involve wholly into it. QFR was extremely good and I enjoyed it. Thank you Aura for the Inikkum Kaalai Pozhudhinile - Sharada Mouli

Every song has a story behind it. And we have our own memories and stories behind our favourite songs . the music session evoked so many such memories. Awesome singing coupled with Subhasree's characteristic presentation was a real treat. Thank you Aura. - Poonkuzhali . R
