Greetings from The Aura,

Music stamps every moment of our lives where each one of us can relate to a song that brings back moments of memories.

The Aura came together to celebrate this magical feeling of music with Prof. Pushparaj an accomplished flutist at our 18th anniversary celebrations. He let the audience experience the intensity of the bansuri's tone and the haunting melody of the evergreen numbers.

The prayer song Maithrim Bhajatha rendered by The Nightingale of Trichy, our senior most member Vidhushi Champa Kalkura gave a divine start to the celebrations. The calming effect of the flute evoked many emotions energizing and inspiring the audience to sing along and dance to the tunes. It was an opportunity for our talented members to sing along to live music.

So true are the words, "Beauty, my friend, is blown in the wind"

The most important aspect of any shrine has been its Idols that is the embodiment of the divine and focus to one's religious pursuits and worship.

Meet Vijay Kumar, the co-founder of India Pride Project who is working to bring stolen Indian heritage home. He was fascinated by historical art and began visiting ancient monuments and temples, as well as blogging about them. That's when he discovered that many Indian artefacts were aggressively being traded openly.

The India Pride Project is a global organization, a network of art lovers who use historical documents and social media to track down stolen sacred artefacts from Indian temples and facilitate their return. Their work is as thrilling as and probably more productive than Indiana Jones ever was in the movies.

Vijay Kumar is a regular speaker and columnist. He also conducts free workshops to students to encourage the next generation to take up an interest in our art.

An unforgettable Sunday Morning filled with music, unity, and growth. Prof. Pushparaj and team's 'Flute Fantasy - Instrumental Melodies' added magic to our celebration. As a member of the Aphrodite Group, I'm proud to be part of this incredible journey. 🌸 Here's to many more years of empowerment and togetherness. 🌸
