December, 2026

Greetings from The Aura,
Diyas were lit, flowers were arranged to bring in the festive vibes of Diwali as Auraites dressed to dazzle in their finest festive finery. Each diya dispelling darkness and welcoming the light that symbolizes knowledge and positivity at The Aura.

The speaker Mr Suraj Kaeley a veteran of financial services in India, made the entire session engaging, insightful and easy to connect with. Mr Kaeley shared his insights on his favourite topic retirement readiness and financial wellbeing. He said that as one approaches retirement, portfolios must give equal focus to returns, risk, tax efficiency, and simplicity. The insights on government bonds, the importance of listing our assets and liabilities, writing a will, were key takeaways.

Flashback

Aura Artemis gave a lively start to the day with fast paced games and festive vibes. The Diwali feast was a delightful culinary experience combined with a very enriching and informative meeting.

Event: Beyond the Notes – The Science and Soul of Music

Guest: Mr Anil Srinivasan

Date: Thursday, 3rd December, 2026

Time: 10.30am

Venue: Courtyard by Marriott.

"Music is a kind of language that speaks directly to the brain's emotional centre" said Neuro Scientist Daniel Levitin.

Experience this fascinating world of science and emotions at our very special musical morning with the acclaimed Classical Pianist, Composer and Music Educator; Winner of the Sangeet Nataka Academy Award and Kalaimamani Award - Anil Srinivasan. His interpretations of popular music and jazz have won him a dedicated following.

Anil Srinivasan is the Founder of Kruu, an education platform built to utilize the power of music as a catalyst to improve academic performance and self-confidence. Anil's work reflects a consistent commitment to education as a thinking discipline, not a transactional service.

Ever wondered why a 3-minute song can completely change your mood or unlock an old memory? Join us to explore The Science Behind Music and Emotions.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

Member Speak

What a wonderful and memorable day it was! ✨The meeting was thoughtfully organised, and every moment had something meaningful to take away.

The speaker made the entire session so engaging, insightful and easy to connect with.

It's always refreshing to be part of gatherings where we not only learn something new but also get inspired to look at things from a different perspective.

A special appreciation to Subha and the entire Aura team for putting together such a lovely experience.

The warmth, energy, beautiful ambience and festive spirit made the day even more special.Truly a wonderful blend of learning, laughter and togetherness! ❤️

Looking forward to many more such nriching gatherings. Thank you for a beautiful day 🌸

- Ramya Nirmesh
